Aaron Joseph Willis, age 65, of Onamia, passed away peacefully of natural causes on Tuesday, December 30, 2025. He was born on Friday, March 4, 1960. Aaron proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps, including service in the Philippines during his tour of duty. He carried the pride of being a Marine throughout his life. Aaron was a deeply complex man who was not always fully understood, even by those closest to him. Beneath that complexity was a person with extraordinary intelligence, a sharp sense of humor, and a laugh so contagious it could light up a room. He was a gifted storyteller whose stories could entertain, surprise, and make people think long after they were told. He had a generous heart and helped others whenever he could, whether by sharing food from his refrigerator, lending money, or simply being there when someone needed him. Aaron loved Japanese literature, action movies, and spending quiet moments watching wildlife from his window. He also enjoyed collecting butane lighter casings and pocket knives. Throughout his life, Aaron faced many hardships and personal battles with strength and resilience. His fight is now over, and he is finally at peace.

Aaron is survived by his sisters, Luana and Birdie; his brother, Robert E.; his nieces, Jessica "Willy," Heather "Aunnie," Dominique "Dom," Naomi, and Toni; his nephew, Gino; and step-niece, Jenny. He is also survived by his grandnieces, Paige, Camille, and LilliAna; his grandnephew, Dante; as well as several other grandnephews and grandnieces. He will be remembered for his intelligence, humor, generosity, and the unique spirit he brought into the lives of those who knew him.
