“ I didn't know you long but I quickly became to admire the strength, joy, and perseverance you had to keep moving forward and enjoy life to the fullest that you could. Your happiness and humor brightened up my life while going through a hard season. I enjoyed watching how you grew to care and love my son Kenyon while staying with you for a short time. Thank you for impacting my life in a small way. For the little moments that we had together that touched me greatly. I can imagine how many other lives that you have impacted as well including your families. You are going to be greatly missed. R.I.P sweet, beautiful, loving, caring, and special Abby.

“ *The love you had for life has impacted not only me but those who you came to know.
You brought such joy to those around you by your smile, laughter, and those eyes that talked. Your eyes expressed who you were and how you communicated with others.
You became the teacher those around you on how to enjoy life despite the handicaps along the way.
In the short time of your life you have accomplished so much and how you have grown into such a beautiful young lady.
You will be forever remembered in the hearts of many and walking with them on their life's journey.*
