I grew up in a house where we say "I love you" after a phone call, every time I walk out the door and every night I go to bed. No matter what, it's always said. And cherish that I've been raised that way.

“ In all the years that I have taught behind-the-wheel, Abby was the only student to get pulled over by the high patrol, and the town cop.....in the same day. She did nothing wrong, the company that rented us the cars, did not follow thru and get the car properly licensed. I did see her often, but Every time I would see her, I'd reminded her. Turns out I didn't have to, she would laugh.....we both knew why.
