

Adeline Hartwig

March 20, 1921 - November 29, 2011

Adeline was born on March 20, 1921 in Absaraka, ND to the late August & Anna (Schwandt) Beseman. She graduated from Swanville High School with the Class of 1939. Adeline was united in marriage to Walter Hartwig on September 16, 1941 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Swanville, MN. The couple farmed in the Swanville area for many years where they raised their family. Adeline and Walter retired from farming and moved to Swanville, MN in 1974. She was a prolific writer, writing articles for both the Morrison County Record and the Long Prairie Leader. Adeline enjoyed working in her flower gardens, watching basketball and the Minnesota Twins. She was also an avid card player, loved feeding birds, and working on embroidery projects. Adeline was very involved with 4-H, which she received several leadership awards. She was also a life long member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Swanville, MN. Adeline was actively involved as a Sunday School Teacher, Release Time Teacher, Catechism helper/associate, and member of Ladies Aide. She loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren dearly and will be greatly missed by many.

Adeline is survived by her children, David (Esther) Hartwig of Albany, MN, Linda Hetland of Roseville, MN, Daniel (Patti) Hartwig of Swanville, MN, Larry (Sandy) Hartwig of Athens, WI, and Joan (Todd) Anderson of Tomah, WI; brothers, Ken Beseman of Swanville, MN and Don (Irene) Beseman of Bemidji, MN; 17 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Adeline is preceded in death by, husband, Walter Hartwig; brother, Gordon

Beseman; and parents, August & Anna Beseman.
