Agnes was born on February 2, 1934 in Pike Creek Township, Morrison County to the late Peter and Kathryn (Weber) Fussy. She grew up in the Pike Creek Township area where she attended school. Agnes worked as a nurse at St. Boniface Hospital in the Twin Cities and later at the Staples Hospital. She met Louis Doucette at a dance in Elmdale, MN and the two later married. Agnes and Louis were united in marriage on October 14, 1957 at St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in Sobieski, MN and they were blessed with 14 children. They began their married life farming in Freedhem, MN and later moving to Cushing, MN. Agnes and Louis owned and operated the Doucette General Store in Cushing for many years and Agnes ran the store day to day while Louis worked road construction and Morrison County Highway Department. She had a true love for children, raising all 14 of her own children and often caring for and watching over her children's friends that were often visiting their home. Agnes was a very soft spoken woman but she was known to carry a big stick and lay down the rules if needed. She was a faithful member at St. James Catholic Church in Randall, helping with religious education and was a member of the Christian Mothers. After she and Louis sold the store in the early 80's and finally retired, they enjoyed traveling to different places in the United States and Canada. Agnes will forever be remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and was always very giving and patient with all her family.

“ My Mother - whenever I look in the mirror I see your face, and when I talk to my kids I hear myself repeating words you said. When I was young, I took you for granted; as I grew older, I realized you were smarter than I thought; and then when I had my own kids, I marveled at how you and dad raised 14 children! You were so selfless, devoted to your religious beliefs, and quick with a joke. I have so many special childhood memories - they comfort me now as we celebrate the life you lived and the many gifts you shared. The Lord has called you home and heaven has a new angel. I love you mom.
