“ I was broken hearted when Chris called to tell me of Alan's passing.....We had just had a short phone conversation last week! He was not easy to get a hold of! He said he was not feeling the greatest. Then someone interrupted on his end. He was SO interested in getting back to the rez. He had just begun to reach out to visit a little....even let me know he had been talking with an old white woman : >) I know, he was just trying to make this Bossy Old White Woman jealous.....
When he was hired for the library assistant position I was concerned because of all the typing. Big Al was up to every request/job/whatever to my delight. PLUS he could fix things and was great with the computer!
I will treasure forever the memories I have with him at Nay Ah Shig. You will be in my heart tomorrow since we cannot make it over to the funeral....Jim has two doctor appointments in Long Prairie and Alex tomorrow after his 6th heart attack and surgery for pace maker and defibrillator. Agent Orange.
Love the picture enclosed on this sight!
