“ Remembering so many precious memories of Alecia and the Blom Family. I remember the very day I met Alicia. It was a beautiful sun shiny day at Dower Lake. That day change my life forever. I met this wonderful woman(Mary) and her 4 children. I no longer felt so scared, homesick and lonely. Alecia and my daughter became fast friends. The Blom’s took us under their wing and from that day on introduced me to the most loving friends, I’ve ever known. Alecia, I want to remember you today, like I did 40 years ago as this sassy, spunky little girl who warmed this heart forever. RIP dear Alicia. My deepest condolences to your precious children, Parents, brothers, sister, family and friends ❤️

“ We have created so many memories in the years. The one I think of the most is me telling her she was pregnant for 5 months, and her telling me it's not possible. I just giggled, and she went to have foot surgery one day to find out she was pregnant, and her surgery was cancelled. I went with her and James to the doctors that day. Nobody believed me at all until the doctor said it's a big baby. I told the doctor I bet she is almost 6 months pregnant. The doctor said yes she is 6 months, and it's a boy. James accidentally punched the ceiling and Alecia was in shock and told me it was my fault because I kept telling her she was pregnant. I said I did not make the baby you all did! 3 months later Zach was born.

Every time I ever needed anything I knew Alecia would be right there to help me. When my house was broken into the first person I called was Alecia and at 2:30am she came running over to my house.

Alecia you will be truly missed and I will always cherish all the memories we have made. You were such an amazing friend. I love you and will always miss you. I will always be right here for your kids always.
