

Alfred J. Janson

August 7, 1921 - June 12, 2009

Alfred Joseph Janson was born on August 7, 1921 in Granite Township, Morrison County, MN to the late Michael and Antonia (Hurdt) Janson. He was united in marriage to Eva Meyer on June 6, 1945 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Pierz. The couple farmed in Agram Township until moving into Pierz in 1979. While farming, Alfred also worked for the Soo Line Railroad, Larson Boatworks, Pierz Lumber Company, and at the Genola Grain Elevator. In the early 1970's, Alfred, with his brother Butch and nephew Ray Meyer, started up the Janson-Meyer Construction Company. They built and remodeled many homes in the Pierz area. Alfred enjoyed carpentry, playing cards, dancing, and watching the Twins baseball team. He especially loved spending time with his grandchildren. He was a lifetime member of the Pierz American Legion. Alfred is survived by his wife, Eva; sons, Jerry (Laurie), Dave (Dawn), and Danny (Dona) Janson, all of Pierz; daughters, Betty (Bill) Stave of Brainerd, MN, and Debby (Pete) Hoheisel of Pierz; 12 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and nine brothers and sisters. Honorary Casketbearers will be Carrie Stave, Chass Thompson, Nathan Janson, Scott Janson, Melinda Janson, Matt Hoheisel, and Jake Hoheisel. Active Casketbearers will be Mike Stave, Eric Janson, Nick Hoheisel, Shawn Janson, Andrew Janson, and Dale Janson.
