“ I could not find my voice last night to share this, but here is what I wish I'd said to honor my dear friend, Angie. I first met Angie in the 7th grade. She was such a fun friend! As her grandma mentioned last night, Angie had her son Brett when we were seniors. This is when I became the closest to Angie, as we were in the same boat. We both were pregnant and then had newborns before we graduated high school. This was not an easy time, 27 years ago! Angie brought so much joy and comfort to me, being my friend. What could have been such a shame filled time, she helped make so much fun! The memories I have of her and I as young mother's, I will cherish forever! What a gift her life was to me! I will miss her until i meet her again.

“ Angie, I'm so sorry you're no longer with us. It was the best day spending time together on Stella's rooftop in Minneapolis a couple years back. You shared so many wonderful stories and I was able to get to know you and realize what a wonderful spirit and outlook you've carried with you in life. Heaven is lucky to have such a fun and joyful spirit in their midst. Peace, Ang!
