“ Your Mom was always one of my most favorite ladies in our time there at the church. She always had such nice things to say to me in fact, I never remember a harsh word out of her. Her personality was seemingly always so kind and rather gentle. I treasure moments together...My parents always loved you Mom, too. She was a very beautiful lady in many ways. May God bless you during this time and pass my sympathy on to your family members and to the Durenes. We will all celebrate our lives in Christ together in heaven. As the song says, "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see, when I look upon his face, the one who saved me by His grace.... what a day, glorious day that will be!" 5/23/09##imported-begin##William Abbott##imported-end##

“ Mom, Words cannot express my love for you. Thank you for the example of a Godly woman but especially the example of a Mother-the SACRIFICE- you were not afraid to give of your Finances-your Love-your Time-always putting the needs of your children before your own. The thing I remember most is the time you spent on your knees in prayer for your family. You were obedient to God-when he put someone on your heart it didn't matter what time of day or night-you prayed. I remember many nights waking up and hearing my name in prayer. God was your source and the only answer to all the question and trials of life. I miss you Mom but you are where you always wanted to be-with your Heavenly Father and in peace waiting for all your family to meet you there. We will be there-soon and very soon. “ Arlys, was a very special person to me, I know her family will greatly miss her. I learned a lot about prayer from her. We spent a lot of time years past praying together in an intercessory prayer group, her most passionate prayer was for her family. I now God will continue to answer those prayers in the years to come.###imported-begin##Beth Newland###imported-end##

“ Mom, I miss you soooo much! Life just isn't the same w/o you, but I wouldn't, even if I could, ask you to come back. I can just envision you in Heaven....a GLOROUS site to behold! Because Jesus is my Lord and Savior I know that one day soon I will join you there.

Thank you for loving me mom and bringing me up in the ways of the Lord. Thank you for being a strong woman of faith in what God can/and will do NO MATTER WHAT (in the natural) our present circumstances look like.... for standing on the Word of God and His promises. Thank you for being a woman of prayerknowing that prayer changes thingsthat God hears and answers. It is because of your faithfulness in these areas that I am what I am today. My prayer is that I can influence and impact my children and grandchildren as you have yours. I will take the baton and continue to pray, as I promised you, for answers to prayer that you did not yet see.

I love you~my dear, sweet mama.

“ Grandma was such an important part of my life. I know that God herard her prayers - when I was in need of a touch from the Lord in my backslidden state, when I was waiting (impatiently) for a husband, and when I wanted to have children. She's been such a great example of what a woman of prayer can do in her prayer closet! I am missing my grandma and sure wish I had had the opportunity to say good bye, but I know that I will see her again one day.##imported-begin##Carrie Gaudette##imported-end##

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Our hearts go out to you in your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sherry Marg##imported-end##
