Arthur was born August 27, 1931 in Pierz, MN to the late Henry and Ottilia 'Merkling' Preimesberger. He grew up in Pierz and attended St. Joseph's School. Art entered the US Army on Sept. 19, 1952 and served until his honorable discharge on Sept. 18, 1954. He was united in marriage to RoseMary A. Carson on July 2, 1955 at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Brennyville, MN. The couple lived in St. Paul and Minneapolis for two years while Art worked at Bieber Woodcraft Company. In 1956, they returned to Pierz and have lived there since. Art was a self-employed carpenter/cabinet maker building homes in the area until his retirement. Art's most loved project was building the family deer hunting cabin near Chisholm, MN. He was often teased by being called

‘The man without a tape measure.’ Art was a really good baseball pitcher. He played semi-pro baseball in Minnesota and was invited four times to come to training camp in Florida by the NY Giants, Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago Cubs. He enjoyed deer hunting, baseball, the Vikings, all music, ice fishing, golfing, and flower gardening. Most of all, Art enjoyed spending time with his family. “ HOLA MAE!! darlin I'm a a fan!! Girl let me tell youu..omgee. My older sesitr got hooked on your transitions because she was tired of her old damaged relaxed hair..soooooo she did the big chop. I on the other hand am doing the long transition (which is annoying). I haven't done the chop because I don't feel it'll look good on me because I'm so use to blow drying it. Every time I watch your videos I'm convinced to do the big chop but all my friends tell me not to do it because it won't look good on me. So you need to understand my struggle. I only added pain to my tragedy by getting bangs, so darling..my nose looks bigger. I just want to say though, that my sesitrs hair looks fabulous thanks to You Tube videos including yours. But a Puerto-Rican, Dominican diva like me, needs your honest suggestions on what the heck to do with her hair. Thanks =)##imported-begin##Kevin##imported-end##
