“ We have one of the many picnic tables that Arvin crafted at our hunting cabin. He and my mom took the slow drive through the woods to deliver it quite a few years ago.
Arvin and I had our cancers in common this past year and shared our many chemo side effects.... Who had the most hair, etc. He did have more hair for awhile!
In pain no longer I am sure Arvin is crafting some really cool stuff in heaven!
Our deepest sympathy to the family,

Very happy Arvin and my mother, Elaine, found each other and shared their lives together after losing their spouses. I've very much enjoyed knowing Arvin over the last 20+ years. Arvin was always kind to my wife Kelley, myself and our children. He was always in good humor when we'd pop in for a visit. Also gave us many wonderful things he made in his woodshop; kids picnic table, bird houses, etc. He was a very talented and kind man that will be missed by our family.

Condolences to Randy, Rick and Ray on the loss of your father.
