“ Years ago when I worked in the courthouse, Barb's smile was one of the constants that would be there on Mondays just as well as on Fridays. Her sunny disposition and love for her kids and grandkids was always worn on her sleeve. At work Barb was that rare mix of down-home friendly and professional. May our great God of comfort and peace blanket you with the kind of hug you need now--the kind that brings the peace that passes understanding and the joy that that peace brings.

“ I was thankful to see and visit with Barb on Thursday last week. She smiled so big when she saw me - I hugged her and gave her a kiss on the forehead - when I left she kissed me on the cheek. A precious memory that I will cherish forever. I will never forget Barb's smile and her loving nature.

Barb, I miss you in this life but am grateful that you are at peace and running around pain free in God's kingdom! I know you will continue to shine your light on all who love you!
