

Barbara Jacobs

December 29, 1935 - September 5, 2010

Barb was born on December 29, 1935 in Waterloo, IA to the late Donald and Charlotte (Stark) Smith. She was united in marriage to Harlin Jacobs on July 31, 1955 at the First Methodist Church in Sioux Falls, SD. Five children were born to this marriage. Barb and Harlin lived in many different towns through their married lives finally locating in Little Falls to the present time. Barb was a homemaker most of her life but did work part-time at several places and also volunteered her time generously throughout her life. She was a wonderful baker making many tasty baked goods along with many beautifully decorated cakes. Barb was known for her cinnamon rolls as well as her ability to put her special touch on everything. Barb knitted many dish cloths which she generously gave away to friends and family. She also had a special gift of visiting with anyone that came into contact with her. Barb was dearly loved and will be greatly missed by many.

She is survived by her husband, Harlin Jacobs of Little Falls, MN; daughters, Dawn (Dave) Janson of Genola, MN, and Dara (Steve) Dulany of Redmond, OR; son, David (Cathy) Jacobs of Little Falls, MN; 7 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren; brother, Russ (Margene) Smith of Waterloo, IA. Barb was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Dyan Jacobs in 1986; son, Daryl Jacobs in 1984.

A special thank you to the Coborns Cancer Center for the wonderful care she received on her cancer journey.

“ I just finished watching Barb's memorial video at Tammy's house. So grateful I got to see it as we arrived at the funeral a few minutes after. I feel such a loss. What a void this will leave in my life. Barb was "unique." We shared a special bond that will never be broken. She was like a sister to me. When Philip was here, it was the four of us. We had so many good times which leave me lots of precious memories to warm my heart. After Philip's homegoing, Barb and Harlin were still there - nothing changed. Barb, I will be looking for you (and Philip) when it's my turn. Till then - as you always said to me - "Love you whole bunches." Carol##imported-begin##Carol Drown##imported-end##

“ I was so happy I got a ride to the funeral of Barb. She was a gracious lady and full of great recipes. I was happy for the times we were able to be together, with Carol and her family, and also for my 80th birthday. She was so nice to know.##imported-begin##Norma Torgerson##imported-end##

“ We love you, Barb, and you will be missed for so many reasons.

Thank you Barb and Harlin for all the great memories and for standing with our family through thick and thin.

God bless you now, Harlin. And Barb, we'll see you one day...##imported-begin##Tammy Smith##imported-end##

“ Bobbie was like a sister to me, in fact, she was the sister I never had. We shared so many wonderful, great times together throughout the years. I am so thankful for all the good times when she and Harlin came to visit with Roger and me, which were many. She & Harlin were even there when my parents passed away and as always, lending their support and love to us and our family. She was an amazing woman who never met a stranger and was loved by all who knew her. We will miss you sweet Bobbie, though you will always remain in our hearts..... May you rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Julie (Kellum)Vogen##imported-end##
