“ Bertha was my mom's only sister; my aunt that never quit smiling despite the alzheimers that altered her memory functions. I will miss her sweet gentle nature. Now she can play Skipbo with my parents in Heaven. I bet my dad is looking over everyone's shoulders to see what their cards are to keep his competitive edge on what to play next. Some things never change. ##imported-begin##Darlene Keller##imported-end##
