“ You were my Aunt and I want you to know how sad it would make me to let you go. So I won't. No, I won't ever forget all the kindness you easily showed. Whether we caught the school bus from your house in the morning or after, you were always there with a snack treat of gum, cookies, popsicles and kind words to share. My heart is so heavy and sad with all the grief I must bare, knowing that the next time I go to your house, you will not be there. A second Mom, no doubt you will forever be to me as I sobbingly write these loving words to thee.

With Love to You Aunt Betty.
