“ Brett, you were a great working partner. You will be missed by alot of us. Everytime any of us needed help you were always there to help out. Especially my old truck and it's problems, especially painting that rusty old front bumper. I truly miss seeing you around at work man. RIP my guy, my condolences go out to the family.

We have known Brett since he was born. It is hard to go back over his life as it was entwined along with our family and our lives. We loved him as we loved our family and we hurt also. All our love to my brother Ken, Nephew Shane and Sister-in-law Janell

“ A gentle laugh
A merry word
Kindness voiced
Troubles heard

Gifting plenty
Asking naught
Your many battles
Bravely Fought

You were my friend
None better met
Rest easy now

“ Every memory I have of Brett is a great one. Brett was truly a one of a kind human. He was caring, generous, and 100% selfless. All Brett ever wanted was to be surrounded by great friends and to have that one special person to share his life with. I know that Brett is finally at peace spending time with his wonderful mother. My dearest Brett, you were such a good friend to me and I will think of you often. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you when you needed me the most, there is so much I wish I could change. Till we meet again ❤️

“ Brett is and always will be my best friend. I don't think I could pick just one memory to wright down.

Brett was truly an amazing person, and friend. He would do anything for anyone just cause that's who he was. He was caring, loving, and always saw the best in people, even the ones that wronged him. I will forever carry the memories that I have and constantly think about the what ifs and should haves.(as I think most of us are) But always remember the times you got to spend with great man.

So please join me, lift your glass to a truly the most amazing person Brett. To you and everyone who cares so much about you. Till we meet again your friend Zach S.
