Mino-inini, Brian Allen Eagle was born on January 22, 1958, in Onamia, Minnesota to Melvin and Delores (Weyaus) Eagle. He grew up in Mille Lacs and then attended the University of Minnesota. Brian settled down with his spouse, Ann Gordon in Minneapolis where they lived and started a family. Around 1996, they moved away from the metro area to a smaller city, Aitkin, MN. Brian was such a hard worker and was good at his job at Woodland Container, a woodworking shop. Always wanting better for his family, Brian attended and graduated from Central Lakes College as a mechanic. He enjoyed spending time with his family where they would go on fishing trips and hang out with his grandkids. Brian liked to spend his time playing cards, going to the casino, and watching the Vikings. He was always there to help others in need. Brian will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his spouse, Ann Gordon; daughters, Alanna Gordon, Brianna Eagle, Cheyenne Eagle all of Aitkin, MN, Susan Butcher of Karlstad, MN; step-daughter, Stacy Gordon; step-son, James (Charli Renollet) Gordon;

4 grandsons, Jeffrey Azure Jr., Conner Gordon, James Gordon Jr., Kyle Gordon; 5 granddaughters, Ashlee Gordon, Ayana Gordon, Nevaeh Gordon, Emily Gordon, Abi Gordon; 3 great-granddaughters, Nova Wirz, Olivia Tuma, Vivian Tuma; great-grandson, Avan Wirz; sisters, Pam Eagle, Rose Eagle, Angie Eagle, and Sheila Benjamin of Mille Lacs, Janice Dorr of Minneapolis, MN; brother, Roy Eagle of Mille Lacs

Brian was preceded in death by his father, Melvin Eagle Sr. and his mother, Delores Eagle; brothers, Melvin "Rufus" Eagle Jr., James Dorr; sister, Robin Eagle; nephew, Thomas Eagle.

“ My brother you will always be remembered as the mouth of the south. Because you always knew what was going on around the rez when you lived in Minneapolis and always had to let everyone know. You always helped people when they needed help. As we send you on your journey on Saturday i know you are going to join our family over there in the land of everlasting happiness.
