Buford Fredrick Faust was born to Jess and Vetress (Ewing) Faust on July 23, 1934 in St. Paul, Minnesota. He attended school in St. Paul. He married Gloria Mary Edmondson on September 13, 1952 in St. Paul, Minnesota. They resided in St. Paul until 1959, when they moved to Randolph, Minnesota. Together they owned and operated businesses throughout their marriage. They owned a gas station in St. Paul. While living in Randolph they opened up and ran a gas station and restaurant. They also owned Buf's Truck Parts. In 1976 they started Viking Auto Salvage in Northfield, Minnesota. In 1982, they moved to the Mille Lacs area. Gloria passed away on March 9, 1991. Buford enjoyed moose hunting, fishing, garage sales, auctions and was a collector of many things. He was an avid Vikings fan. Buford was also known for his storytelling. He later met and married Charene Lynn Vivant on April 5, 1996. Their family was a great source of joy, and they enjoyed spending time with them. They enjoyed a good meal out and spending afternoons watching birds.

He will be sadly missed by his wife, Charene; sons, Buford (Deborah); Anthony (Judy), Kim, Arnie and his fiancé, Mary; daughter, Julie (Greg) Buehler; his son, Luke passed away on January 4, 2011; Buford is also survived by 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.
