

Cari Mitchell

April 2, 1971 - March 13, 2011

Cari Lynn Mitchell was the third to be born of triplets to her parents, Beatrice and James Mitchell on April 2, 1971 in Minneapolis, MN. They are the 1st known set of triplets of the Minnesota Chippewa tribe. She graduated in 1989 from Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota. Her family moved to Onamia where Cari worked at the casino in various departments tending to the needs and comforts of the guests, and later at the Circle of Health as a claims processor. Cari enjoyed spending time with her children, family, and going to movies, and watching her favorite TV show, the Ellen Degeneres Show, and listening to George Jones. Luck seemed to always be on her side as she won vacations to Maui, Los Angeles, and Las Vegas. She had a giving spirit and will be remembered for her generous nature, and always putting the needs of others before her own. She will be greatly missed by her loving family and many friends.

Cari is survived by her mother, Beatrice (Sam) Mitchell; sons, Nate Bugg, Eric Doust, special friend, Jake Doust, Sr.; sisters, Doreen Mitchell, Debbie (Jade) Mitchell, Lori Mitchell, Amy (Kevin) LaDue, Beth (Travis) Mitchell; brothers, Robert Mitchell, Alan (Chris) Mitchell, Matt Mitchell; and many loving nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Cari Mitchell was preceded in death by her father, James "Tuggo" Mitchell, Jr.; daughter Ruby Mae Doust; sister, Shelley Mitchell; grandparents, Maggie & Fred Sam, Jennie & James Mitchell, Sr.

“ To my beautiful baby sister, I watched you undergo such struggle and pain. The only comfort I have right now is the fact that you are painfree. Until we meet again, at the happy place, I will forever love you and cherish each and every memory we have made together.##imported-begin##Debbie Mitchell##imported-end##
