“ One of my favorite memories of Carol was when I was a young child and I was walking on the brick flowerbeds in front of Grandma and Grandpa Frerich's house. I probably shouldn't have been doing that...but I fell and scraped my knees. Carol came running over with her cute little shortset on, made sure I wasn't hurt, consoled me and then accidentally burnt me with her cigarette! She felt so bad but it's truly a funny, ironic story! I loved Carol's laugh, her playfulness, her humor, and seeing her roll up to family reunions in her car! Carol will be missed.

“ Okay so I have to share a memory of my Aunt Carol from the family reunion last summer. We were telling stories and laughing back and forth when I told her “Carol I always thought you were so sweet and innocent!” Then after thinking about it I said, “Wait, that’s what people always tell me!! Now I know who I get it from!!!” We both laughed so hard with our ‘devious’ laughs!! Such a great lady who’s going to be missed by so many.

“ I will miss you Aunt Carol. She was very much like my mother, Rose Ann. Very similar manerisms. A very special lady for sure.
