“ Well, I have so many memories of Chuck. Our family has known Chuck since the early 70's. He was a very funny and caring person. He cared for everyone. We had lotz of fun with him at some parties and always was trying to dance or try his skills at guitar. To this day he was still playing his guitar that he treasured very much. We are sure going to miss him when we go to the casino in Mille Lacs. Me n him would always try our luck n he had his cold beer. But most times he didnt have a cold one cuz we didnt, but we would have one ,just to join him. But, rest at home Chuck and enjoy all your friends that have already gone home. Tell our dad n husband Butch that we love n miss him. And enjoy your puffs together. REST IN PARADISE CHUCK.
