“ There’s not another soul out there with quite the contagious smile and energy. Memories with Cindy are desirable and thought of so often. She was a consistent bundle of joy with so much charisma, always approachable and selfless. This little city is a better place with her influences, even if she left too soon. I’ll dance and travel a little more often now- and remember her.

“ You were there for me so many times. From offering me a place to stay, being a great listener and cutting my hair short when I started chemo. You did my hair for years and we shared a lot of tears and laughs (the bald spot). You'd get mad cuz you loved to fix it all crazy and I would go home and wash it right away. I will miss you my beautiful friend!

You were the most beautiful and caring person I knew. You were always there through all my surgeries to make me beautiful. We had so many good talks. You were a great Mom to the entire neighborhood. Everybody loved you. I loved you so much. You have a big job up there in heaven watching over us down here. I bet your. You and your Grandma's are now dancing together with the angels.
