

Clarence Tuller

September 19, 1909 - December 13, 2010

Clarence M. Tuller was born in Eagle Bend, Minnesota on September 19, 1909 to Arthur and Lily (Sutton) Tuller. The family moved to Little Falls when he was nine years old. After graduation from Little Falls High he attended St Cloud Teachers College. Clarence then taught in a rural school west of Little Falls. He also worked with the WPA in setting up shelters, the water tower and other projects at Lindbergh State Park. Clarence was employed at Hennepin Paper Company for 28 years and retired in 1972 as Maintenance Supervisor. On September 20, 1930 he married Regina Como and they had three daughters, Joan, Barbara and Mary Lou. Clarence greatly enjoyed his hobby of woodworking and spent many hours in his shop. He enjoyed traveling with his wife throughout the United States visiting all of the State Parks in Minnesota. He had a love of nature and enjoyed his flowers, gardening, making bird houses, camping, fishing, pheasant hunting and also league bowling, playing cards and being with their friends. Clarence greatly enjoyed his family, visiting and his "fireplace parties" telling about his childhood and ancestors. He will be greatly missed.

Clarence is survived by his daughters, Barbara Banick and husband, Duane of Little Falls, MN, Mary Lou Yatckoske and husband, Orvin of Pierz, MN; thirteen grandchildren; 22 great grandchildren; and 22 great-great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers; two sisters; his daughter, Joan; grandson Roger, and a great-great granddaughter, Lilith.

“ Dear Tuller Family - I will miss my visits with Clarence; just saw him a month ago and had a nice visit, looking out his window. I have fond memories of his visits to the Mn. Fishing Museum and his photo donations. What a gentleman! He's made it to heaven in time to celebrate Christmas with his bride! My thoughts and condolences are with all of you.##imported-begin##Lee Ann Doucette##imported-end##
