“ How does a person pick a memory they have of Curt when there are so many. One of our favorites is mudding in our field . Got all of our trucks and a tractor buried. Curts truck had a flat and you could listen to it spitting every time the tire went around. I must've dug his glasses out of the mud a dozen times. Ended up having the neighbor come over the next morning with his backhoe and lift Curt's truck out . It looked like a farmer hoisting up a cow that is to be slaughtered..

Curt is the one person you knew would be there to help in any way he could, and if he couldn't do it he knew who would. He will be missed so deeply by Kenny and I.

“ When I first met Curt with Randy Symantiez deer hunting awhile back we just ate breakfast in Randall. We then went over to his garage and he asked if Randy and I wanted a sammich and we were going to go out in his fields driving around. I said “no thanks, we just had breakfast”. Randy laughed and said he was talking about a beer for the road. So we tootled around the fields drinking our sammies and I had to get out and pee a lot so there was a Kleenex trail of where we drove while were all laughing about it. Good times with Curt that we will never forget! Joleen Symanietz
