“ My sympathies to Phil and the Family. I'm fortunate to have known you all for many years and had the girls babysit me when I was younger. Darlene had taken care of my younger brother when he was very little as well. She always had a loving home open to all. I remember Phil and Darlene stopping at my parents' home after midnight mass on Christmas Eve for snacks and a nice visit. Many times the visit would go until the early morning hours, but it didn't matter as we were together celebrating Friendship and Jesus' birth! I've been so blessed in having you all as my neighbors across the street as well. She always had a smile on her face even though she was ill. She's among the Angels in Heaven now. "With tears we cry every day, in angels' arms you were carried away. Our memories of love and laughter shall not fade, for inside our hearts you will always stay.”
