Daryl Duane Breden was born on August 2, 1970, in Edina, MN. On August 18, 1970, he became the son of John and Lois Breden in Randall, MN. He grew up on the family farm near Randall, MN. Daryl attended Dr. S.G. Knight Elementary School and Little Falls High School and graduated in 1988. Daryl's occupation was mainly a welder, and loved mechanic work; he could be found tinkering and working on vehicles. He was very knowledgeable in many areas and could figure out how to repair or fix almost anything. Daryl loved the outdoors and could be found many times in the nearby fields agate picking, and loved being out in nature.

Daryl is survived by his children, Jonathan Breden and Mackenzie Breden; mother, Lois Breden; brother, Michael Breden; fiancé, Miah Moeller; and grandson, Riley.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Breden and his grandparents.
