“ Well my brother, I guess your time has come to where you can finally lay your head down and get your much needed rest.. I am pretty sure you're enjoying your time now that you are reunited with your parents! I know just how much they ment to you, and that you loved them so dearly.

Which leads me back to you, and how much you ment and still mean to me. You have impacted my life in so many wonderful ways, and the memories I will keep with me forever. You will not only be missed by me, by Jamie and my whole family, in which you became a part of immediatly. You know that for a fact!

I can tell you that you are already being truly missed, you really have touched so many hearts, and for that I am truly grateful. I am very blessed that I can call you my brother in every sense of the word.

I also pray that you and your family were able to spend quality time together and enjoy life as I know that was so very important to you.

This is so incredibly hard, and life will not be the same without you, but I just really want to thank you for being a part of all of our lives.

You will be thought of everyday, and missed, that brother I can assure you! So until we meet again, may God bless and keep you and yours, may you be healthy and without pain, keep smilin and be free.

Thank you so very much, words just cant express..

David, as you already know, you will always be loved, missed and forever in our hearts.
