“ Aunt Denise, my feelings are similar about your passing as my grandma's (your mom's) passing. Wishing you had a better life, an easier one. I'm so sorry for all that you went through in your lifetime. You deserved more. I loved you and was always so thankful that you allowed me and my children to hug you, even though you always told us you weren't much of a "hugger". You were a hard worker and I could see you took pride in your work when you always made a point of showing us what you'd been working on when we came for visits. Johan enjoyed the many intellectual conversations he had with you also. Our children loved you so much and were very sad about your passing. Zian will cherish all the little gifts you saved for her and surprised her with every time we came. When we looked at you, Denise, we didn't see what other people might have seen (a hard person who shut herself in from the world), we saw someone who needed love...and that is what we tried to give you. Thank you for the many wonderful memories of an aunt that cared as much as she could for her nieces and nephews. Goodbye Denise, we love you, and we hope to see you in Heaven.##imported-begin##Celanie##imported-end##

“ I was so sad to hear of Denise's passing. I know it will leave a big hole in your soul, Don, and her sisters and family will miss her dearly. But now is her time for peace and reuniting with others who have gone before. I know she is in a beautiful place. Our condolences, prayers and thoughts are with you at this time.##imported-begin##Ruthie Dodge Lane##imported-end##

“ To learn of her passing grieved my heart so. In my heart I visualize her new habitaion with the Lord~ forever and always in His care and keeping. I can see her laughing and dancing before the Lord.... free at last~ to be everything and ALL that He created her to be. Thank you Jesus that you are our Redeemer~ our Restorer~ that today and forever after her life with you is wholly complete and full. I look forward to seeing you, Denise, in that heavenly abode where only love, joy, and peace abide. Say hi! to my mom, would you? Your life exemplified to us what we can endure and withstand with the Lord by our side. You will be greatly missed. To her family~ you are in my prayers. Let peace reside in your heart knowing that she will never be visited with pain, loneliness, sorrow, or anything that this world and relationships can throw at you. No, she cannot come back to you, but one day (and soon) you will go to where she is~ never to be separated again. Thank you Jesus!###imported-begin###Diane Gunion Finneman###imported-end##

“ Denise
Words are not enough--but they are all we have.
Her life is gone but her memory lives on in our hearts and minds.
Though her life was hard she knew how to laugh. Though "I have to go"--She'd sit a spell and "her " stories she'd tell. Remember her now---Remember her always as one who gave and did as she could. May we do the same.###imported-begin###Pat Clark###imported-end##

“ Was so sorry to hear of Denise's passing. She was a long time family friend. I don't have many childhood memories that don't contain Denise and her sisters. She always had a great story to tell and you could always count on some belly laughs when Denise was around. She was very giving, always willing to share what she had. I will miss seeing her even though it was less frequent these past few years, it was always good. She may have been down at times, but never out. - My life is richer for having known her. - Nancy Schultz - Friend###imported-begin###Nancy Schultz###imported-end##

“ "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."
(John 14.1-3)

May you rest in a painless, peace full place Aunt Denise. You were loved more than you would have known on this earth. Love your Nephew Seth###imported-begin###Seth Nelson###imported-end##

“ My wife's older sister. I was glad to have known her, and enjoyed helping her in her last years. Even tho she was reclusive, she allowed us into her life to assist in her life.. but only to a certain amount. I enjoyed last summer season every other week working at her home doing what she couldn't do for herself. She always made sure to have good food on hand for me! I'm sad about her passing.##imported-begin##Bruce Nelson##imported-end##

“ Blessed are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst
for righteousness,
For they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful.
For they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called the sons of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted
for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Matthew 5:3-10

God raised her up an Angel.##imported-begin##A Loved

“ God filled my heart with love for you, but now, my heart is ripped out and broken. I will feel the loss of you. I will miss the good times we had in working together. You were a unique special flower in God's garden. Now He has you in his hands....I love you , my sister. Your new life is well worth what you sacrificed. God Bless you...Anita##imported-begin##Anita Nichols, Nelson##imported-end##
