Donald was born on August 11, 1931, in Little Falls, MN to the late Carl and Alvina (Kobilka) Saehr. He grew up in the Pierz area and resided there all his life. Donald was united in marriage to Delores Stuckmayer on September 19, 1955, at St. John Nepomuk Catholic Church in Lastrup, MN. Together the couple farmed for many years northwest of Pierz where they raised their four boys, Dave, Duane, Dale, and Darrel. Donald was a very talented musician, entertaining many over the years with his band Don's Concertina. Don also did seasonal custom work for area neighbors and friends, picking corn and baling hay, spending many hours on his 50 John Deere. In 1964, Don had a farming accident picking corn, losing his ability to play the concertina. Not wanting to give up music, Don learned to play the drums and continued playing until the age of 80. Staying active by hunting and fishing, he was proud when his children and grandchildren would get their deer and enjoyed the comradery with his shot of brandy. In 1998, Delores passed away, missing the love of his life, Donald kept himself busy, spending most of his time with his sons and their families, helping out wherever needed. He will forever be remembered for his great sense of humor and his love for his family.

Donald is survived by sons, David (Tammy) Saeher of Pierz, MN, Duane Saeher of Pierz, MN, Dale (Laurie) Saeher of Pierz, MN, and Darrel (Amy) Saeher of Pierz, MN; brother, Norman Saeher of Sartell, MN; grandchildren, Stacie (Tom) Poepping, Nick (Brandi) Saeher, Danny (Jodie) Saeher, Scott (Emily) Saeher, Kelsey (Derek) Eisenschenk, Darvin Saeher, Randy Saeher, Beth Saeher, and Holly Saeher; great-grandchildren, Preston, Siri, Gracie, McKinley, Derek and Jack.

Donald was preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Alvina Saeher; wife Delores Saeher, and infant great-grandson, Tyler Poepping
