“ Grandma, you are very much missed, it is almost a year since you have left us and not one day has gone by that I have not missed you, remembering all of the times that Jason and I went to your house, baked cookies, played cards, going on trips, pretending that we were sleeping so we could stay over, how no matter what you knew if there was something bothering me, I miss you greatly, but know that god needs an angel in heaven, and know we will meet again.

Love Always,
