“ I rented the basement apartment of Dick and Doris from 1981 to 1984. They were wonderful landlords and wonderful people to me. I enjoyed living there so much! We kept in contact for many years after I moved away and I was always excited to hear from them. There were special people and they always held a special place in my heart. God's peace to you their family. I know Dick is rejoicing in heaven now she is there to join him.

“ *Aunt Doris was very dear to my sister, Jennie, and me. We have shared many fond memories of this dear lady, and will remember her for fun and kindness!
Many memories stand out and are like pearls on a necklace.
All my love to family -- I share your sorrow as well as the joy of a long life of love.*

Love, Marley
