Edna A. Schomer was born on February 8, 1926 in Granite Township, Minnesota to the late Fred and Alma (Voelker) Schomer. She was the oldest of 5 children. At the age of 18, Edna went to work as a housekeeper in St. Paul. Edna was united in marriage to Matt Stuckmeyer on September 7, 1948 at St. John's Catholic Church in Lastrup and they were married for 59 1/2 years. Together they farmed side by side on their farm for 52 years. Edna loved gardening, canning, cooking and especially baking. No one left her table with an empty stomach. After Matt's death, she continued to live on her own and in 2010 moved to the Pierz Villa and resided there until the time of her death. Edna loved her family dearly, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Edna was a member of the Christian Mothers and The Pierz Legion Auxiliary.

Edna is survived by her sons, Allen (Jan) Stuckmayer, Robert (Marylou)

Stuckmayer, Gary (Carol) Stuckmayer; daughter-in-law, Colleen (Cookie) Stuckmayer; 6 grandkids; 15 great-grandkids; 2 step grandkids; 3 step great-grandkids; 6 step great-great-grandkids.

Edna was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Alma Schomer; husband, Matt; son, Mark; grandson, Matthew and great-grandson, Hudson Smude.
