The family is grateful to the staff at St. Gabriel's Hospital for the care that was provided to Ed in his final days. A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11:00 AM on Friday, November 19, 2021, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Flensburg, MN with Father Jimmy Joseph officiating. Burial will be in the Parish Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 4 to 7 PM on Thursday and one hour prior to the service on Friday. All services are at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Flensburg. Masks are requested at all services. Caring for Ed and his family is the Shelley Funeral Chapel of Little Falls, MN.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are requested to the Parkinson's Foundation (www.parkinson.org), (200 SE First Street, Suite 800, Miami FL 33131), and random acts of kindness and goodwill are the best ways to carry Eddie's legacy forward.

Ed was an individual that approached all life matters from a work smarter, not harder perspective which was needed in the laborious life as a dairy farmer! He was industrious, an engineer by design and could build or fix anything. To Ed, helping others was a way of life, whether it was to help a family member, neighbor, anyone in need or the community. Ed instilled all of these qualities in his kids and they learned early on that kindness and character is what mattered most, and material possessions did not define a person. Ed loved to farm, and in 1969 Ed and Judy became dairy farmers on the family farm where he grew up. They raised their 6 children on the farm, and continued to live on the farm, even after they slowly transitioned out of farming. As Ed and Judy retired from farming in 1999, Ed worked for the Culdrum Township for 13 years doing road maintenance, which he loved. In Ed's glory days, he loved to weld new creations, repair John Deere tractors, fish, was a bit of a jokester, playing pranks and was even a bit of a yogi, with a great headstand!

Left to cherish Ed's memory is his wife Judy, of 56 years; his beloved border collie, Barnie; children, Julie (Brian) Hruby of Dalton, MN, Theresa (Jon) Wallace of Xenia, OH, Richard (Brenda) Sanoski of Albany, MN, Raymond (Jamie) Sanoski of Lewiston, Utah, Jean (Chris) McArthur of Gulpen Netherlands and Jane (Joe) Kedrowski of St. Cloud, MN; 12 grandchildren, Mitch Hruby, Nathan Hruby, Jordan Sanoski, Jenna Gunderson, Josh Sanoski, Anna Sanoski, Addison Ames, Jalin Ames, Brandon Sanoski, Jessica Sanoski, Carlie Kedrowski and Michael Kedrowski; 2 grand dogs, Halle and Liam McArthur; 4 great-grandchildren (the 4th due this month!); sister, Carol Helseth of Minneapolis, MN; brother, Andy Sanoski of Baxter, MN; sister-in-law, Terri Sanoski of Cushing, MN; brother-in-law, Joe Schumer of Upsala, as well as many nieces and nephews, in-laws and friends.

Ed was preceded in death by his, parents Frank and Mary; sister, Elaine Schumer; brothers, Leonard, George and Bernard Sanoski; grandson, Connor Wallace and 2 grand-dogs, Stuart and Jack McArthur.

Watching the slide show just makes me realize how fast life happens, and then is gone. The pictures with the Jean and Janes being babies, and remembering running around your house with Julie and Theresa and the boys after having too many Christmas cookies doesn't seem that distant. We were all such rambunctious children, but I can't recall any of the adults complaining, least of all Ed. He was a kind, beautiful person whose spirit will live on in his children and grandchildren.

“ Among my fondest childhood memories are those of visiting the Sanoski family and spending time in the winter wonderlands of yesteryear. Ed and my father shared an affinity for agriculture & John Deere tractors, support for a strong family unit, a love of nature in its beauty, and a belief in a higher power Who makes it all possible. When Norman Rockwell painted a picture of Americana in decades gone by, Ed conveyed the character at its heart: I think on those days when I see a Rockwell or Redlin -style painting. (Even the dogs, too, find a nostalgic mention in his memorial, and that is the kind of warmth Ed exemplified in this world.) I hope and pray Ed finds welcome in a place where the beauty is everlasting. I extend my most sincere condolences to the Sanoski family who has lost a treasured and dear father, mentor, & guide, as well as to the friends & acquaintances of Ed.

May his soul find a well-deserved peace in Heaven.
