“ I am sorry that I couldn't be there but I am sure you understand why. I have thought about you a lot and I wish I could have seen you more. I will always remember those Christmas's when you were Santa and the stories that you told. I can still remember spending time with you in the garage while you were working away. Those were the happy memories that I will always cherish and those are the memories I will pass on to my children. Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Michelle##imported-end##

Our sincerest sympathies.

From Sally - It is not right that Eddie died and I am still here. It shouldn't be like that. but i remember him when he was just a young boy helping out at the farm and always enjoyed visiting when you lived in Columbia Heights.

From Bev - I know how much you feel the loss - the empty room - the silence - even though you know he is in a better place. My thought and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Sally Herbst and Beverly Aplikowski##imported-end##
