Eileen Boser was born on August 22, 1926 to the late Joe and Rose (Millner) Boser in Lastrup, MN. She was united in marriage to Clarence Tschida on May 8, 1949. Eileen graduated from St. Francis High School in Little Falls in 1944. After graduation, she trained as a teletype operator. She then went to Utah to work for the war effort. After the war, she returned to Minnesota and worked at Munsingwear. After her marriage to Clarence, she stayed home and raised her children. Eileen was a happy homemaker. She loved to sew, play cards and go fishing. Spending time at the lake was her favorite thing to do, sitting at the end of the dock praying and fishing. Eileen was also a proud St. Francis Associate.

Eileen is survived by her children, Gary Tschida, Greg (Pat) Tschida, Cindy (Richard) Eversman and Glen (Janet) Tschida; grandchildren, Mick Tschida, Abby (Duane) Lundy, Mitchel (Bailey) Eversman, Kathryn Tschida and Steve (Steph) Tschida; great-grandchildren, Anders and Leif Tschida, Maya and Evan Dooley, Avery, Cameron, Gage and Sadie Lundy, Eloise and Adeline Eversman and Delilah Tschida; brothers, Rod (Pat) Boser, Gil (Lil) Boser, Larry (Doris) Boser; sisters, Delly Stein and Sharon(Jerome) Meyer.

Eileen was welcomed into Heaven by her husband, Clarence, and her granddaughter, Kelly (Tschida) Dooley.

A special Thank You to Guardian Angels by the Lake Senior Living for all the loving care and support.

“ I loved visiting with your mother, both in Little Falls and also in Elk River when I was passing through. She was a woman of great spirit, common sense and lovely to have as a friend. Rest in peace, dear Eileen. The Franciscan Sisters send our deepest sympathy and love to the family and friends.

“ My sympathy on the loss of your Mother, she and I worked at Munsingwear for many years. I enjoyed our friendship for years as she went to OLOL as I did. After Munsingwear closed I sold Fuller Brush products door to door and she and her hubby were one of my customers and I enjoyed spending time with them both. I often wondered where she was living and now they are both in heaven enjoying each other again. Many fond memories of them both. A very classy lady I will never forget. God bless you all during this sad time.
