“ A loving, caring, wise man who brought laughter and comfort with his ever insightful and brutally honest words. He was a diamond in the rough. I know Eldon, that you would be both hurt and disappointed to learn that "ma" Mary Veith, your "wife" (as you always referred to her in conversation) whom you loved and shared many years with, and Patrick Warren, your "kid" (as you called him) whom you co-parented into manhood and fatherhood, were not mentioned or acknowledged in your obituary. I witnessed firsthand how much Patrick and his wife & three daughters meant to you. But rest assured dear, kind Eldon for many of us know how much they meant to you (through your own words) and equally how very much you have meant to them!!!! Thank you Eldon for being such an intricate part of their lives, you will be remembered & cherished with love & laughter always. May you rest in peace dear child of God :)

“ Our condolences to Eldon's family! Eldon was a family friend with my parents and when my mom was at Amazing Days, Eldon watched over her. While visiting my mom, I would also visit with Eldon, watch western movies with Eldon and talk to him about whatever conversation was brought up. Eldon will be remembered as a caring and gentle man. May he rest in peace and be free from all ailments!
