“ She was always Mrs. Moran to me. She was the mother of my dear friend, Judy, and we just did not call parents by their first names! In a life that had more sorrow than most, she chose to give joy. Even when she was in assisted living, she visited residents at the Lutheran Care Center. I will never forget her kindness to my mother after my father died or the good advice and wisdom she shared with me in those dark days. When my dad died and, later, my mother, she and Judy took it on themselves to bring food for the family during the Visitation hours. I remember the Morans working together at the Oaks and seeing how much they just loved to be together. Her faith was exemplary although she had more than enough reason be angry with God. I love the picture on this page--outside, surrounded by sunshine and nature and smiling. As I extend my sympathy to her children I share their joy as Ella is reunited with Dick and her babies in eternal light.
