“ We enjoyed the ten years your folks were here in Colorado. The dinners (that were lunch). The drives and domino's. Ellie had a laugh that was contagious. We are sorry for your loss.

“Ellie” was a wonderful, caring and kind person, she had an easy way about her. I enjoyed the times we had coffee and visited, she always made me laugh with the things she would say and how she would say them. I will miss her, but know she is now free of pain and with God. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time of grief.
