

Eugene "Gene" Leiner

February 8, 1938 - August 29, 2015

Gene was born in Minneapolis to Clem and Martha Leiner on Feb. 8, 1938. He married Carol Jackson in 1958, and he proudly worked as a printer at Augsburg Fortress for 36 years. Upon retiring, Gene moved to Mille Lacs Lake, where he spent many happy years with his loyal friend and partner, Patti Zins. He loved the outdoors and enjoyed fishing, gardening, hunting, and participating in the American Legion Color Guard.

He is survived by his children, Greg (Jené) Leiner of Inver Grove Heights and Shari (Rick) Smith of Jacksonville, Fla. He is also survived by four grandchildren: Margot, Tessa and Griffin Leiner and Andrew Smith; and two brothers, Tom of Chaska and Wayne of Watertown, S.D.

“ We loved visiting with Gene when we visited Aunt Marian and Uncle Al at Milac's Lake. He always remembered us when we visited from Oregon and we'd pick back up where we left off from the previous visit. So sorry for the family's loss.

Connie and Denmis Johnson - September 08, 2015 at 11:30 PM

“ Our sympathies go out to Gene's family. Gene was a great guy who always seemed to have a smile on his face or at least a good-natured wisecrack aimed at you. Rest in peace.
