“ Your beloved one has now joined the Great Church Triumphant. Imagine the joyous re-union in Heaven! May Fern's great Faithfulness comfort you now. George & I so many memories of visiting with Fern & Kenny. The rich bonus of Aunt Minnie and all her years. How George treasured his Minnesota Family. You all made Norma's life so much more secure with church & lunches & visits. She spoke so very often of her gratitude. Fern so very, very dear to her. God has blessed our lives with all these precious disciples. May we continue their example. May God Bless you and yours always.##imported-begin##Dina Nelson, widow of George C. “ Dear Lynn and Bev and families, My deepest sympathy to you on the death of your mother. You'll never forget your mother's face or the gentleness of her touch. The stories she told and the traditions she handed down let you know who you are. You are her legacy. What a reunion in heaven when your mom, Aunt Norma & Mary saw each other and when all the families rejoiced at being together again. How wonderful for your dad & Reeny to be reunited with your mother. I know how much you will miss your mother and I believe God will carry you through your sorrow.##imported-begin##Renee (Nelson) Eich##imported-end##

“ Lynn:
*My deepest sympathies to you and your whole family on the death of your Mom Fern.
It really touched me when you told me you would be following in your Mom's foot steps and involve yourself in church when you retired as much as your Mom did when she was able to.....I am sure she is extra proud of her daughter. My thoughts and prayers are with you right now. OOOOOOOOOO Jane##imported-begin##Jane Anderson##imported-end##*
