“ Mom/Grandma Florence...You are now where you have wanted to be for so many years now...but your passing has left me and a number of your other family members in shock. I was fortunate to have had an opportunity to visit with you on the 28th which happened to be her wedding anniversary...we chatted a bit and I shared some tears and memories with her. For all the years I have know this woman she just ever changed...A strong woman she was...she will be missed by many, many people. She has a large family with lots of love to give, but she gave so much of herself from the heart which will stay with us all until we are called someday. Be prepared as the Lord has taught us all....who would have thought that Dennis had the last cup of coffee with her and then returned to the home to say good bye for the last time....God speed Grandma....with love to all the family. God Bless you all.
