“ So sorry to hear of Florence passing. I'm sure she was welcomed by all those on the other side to greet her with open arms.

What a treasure she was, taking everything with a smile and accepting as it is the way it is.

Conversation at the quilt table of women who would sew the finishing binding on was interesting when she was there! She'd always have a sweater on and jewelry to coordinate. Picture perfect for that little lady she was. So graciously she would add her comments to the subject of the day.

She was a gem of a lady, and will be dearly missed in our church community. And by her 3 sons and families.

Shalom Florence.
