

Genevieve Helgeson

September 15, 1912 - September 20, 2007

Genevieve Helgeson was born in Deer Creek, MN on September 15, 1912 to the late Walter and Pearl (Fish) Shoberg. She graduated from Cloquet High School in 1930 and Duluth State Teachers College in 1932. She was a teacher in various small schools in Beltrami County and then later at the J.W Smith and Horce May Schools in Bemidji, MN. Genevieve was united in marriage to Conrad Helgeson and they resided on a small farm near Debs, MN. She belonged to numerous organizations during her life and was nominated Senior Citizen of the Year in Beltrami County in 1988. She wrote articles for the Bemidji Pioneer about her travels and the beauty of living our ordinary lives. She had a radiant smile for everyone. She moved to Little Falls, MN in 1991 to live near her daughter's family. She continued to do volunteer work until she reached 90 years old. She was a member of Bethel Lutheran Church and ADK while living in Little Falls. She is survived by her daughter, Diane (Earl) Pilloud of Little Falls, MN; grandchildren, Conrad (Recy) Pilloud of Denver, CO, Joel Pilloud of Little Falls, MN, and Bridget (companion Brian) of Portland, OR; great grandchildren, Heidi, Mireille, Colin, Anja, Rubin, and Isaac; close friend Sr. Therese Furnstahl of Little Falls, MN; sister-in-laws, Lillian Helgeson of Pinewood, MN, & Dede Shoberg of Texas. Genevieve is preceded in death by husband, Conrad Helgeson; parents Walter and Pearl (Fish) Shoberg; brothers, Dick and Bob Shoberg; and sister, Beatrice Johnson.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Diane and Earl, during this difficult time. Your mother is in heaven now, in the Lord's loving arms. Yet she lives on in this world, in you, your children and grandchildren. God bless.
