

Genevieve Bell Majaski

December 19, 1929 - August 8, 2015

Genevieve B. Majaski, 85 year old resident of Burtrum, MN, passed away on Saturday, August 8, 2015 at Little Falls Care Center. Funeral Service will be at 2 PM on Wednesday, August 12, 2015 at Community Covenant Church in Upsala, MN, with Pastor Craig Johnson officiating. Burial will be in the Community Covenant cemetery. Visitation will be from 5 PM to 8 PM on Tuesday at Shelley Funeral Chapel in Little Falls, and from 1 PM to 2 PM Wednesday at the church. A Prayer Service will be held at 7PM on Tuesday. Genevieve Bell Brown was born on December 19, 1929 in Duluth, MN to the late George and Fern (Miller) Brown. She graduated from Duluth Denfeld High School where she met her sweetheart, Roy. Genevieve was united in marriage to Roy Austin Majaski on Jan. 15, 1949 in Duluth. They resided in Duluth and other locations, and then moved to Royalton, MN in 1968. Together they started Majaski's Machine Shop, Inc. in Royalton, and Genevieve worked along side of her husband, and their children at the shop. After retirement, the couple spent their winters in Arizona, and the summer months on Pine Lake in Burtrum. Genevieve enjoyed her time at the lake as well as taking the RV on camping trips. She loved the water and swimming, as well as golfing and square dancing. Genevieve also enjoyed crocheting and would make a complete outfit for each of her grandchildren. She was a long time member of Community Covenant Church in Upsala and the ABTO Train Club in Arizona.

Genevieve is survived by her sons, Timothy (MaryAnn) , Keith (Marge), and Alan (Marie) Majaski, all of Royalton; daughters, Rox Ann (Robert) Fliflet of Buffalo Lake, MN, Brenda (Donald) Bonebrake of Little Falls, Pamela (Gary) Allord of Little Falls, and Tina (Todd) Pitman of Little Falls; 15 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Roy; granddaughter, Jennifer Majaski; and brother, Robert Brown.

“ I wish I had more years to know Gen better. What I do know is she was a loving caring and giving lady. She was a kind sister-in-law it was a pleasure to know her. I did not know I had a brother until he called me on the phone. So I had a brother and a sister-in-law and a great family of nieces and nephews. I love you all and God bless you and keep you safe. ❤️❤️🙏??🙏??
