“ Growing up I never had a Grandfather, until George became part of my family. I have to say that he made a hugely positive impact on my life and I will miss him. His hard work, positivity and compassion for others was contagious. My best memories with him were his life stories he told while we were deer hunting, fishing, cutting wood and going to the legion (for health reasons). He had a way of telling stories that sucked you in and made your imagination run wild. Next time I am back at the Legion I will buy some rippy tickets and brandy for you George. "It only takes one". Thanks you for being you! Love Eric, Vanessa and Russel.

George and Helen were our neighbors. I recall one day it was George's birthday and his daughter got him a cake, he brought the rest over to our house so the kids could celebrate with him because he wouldn't be able to eat the whole cake himself. He was a very nice neighbor. He even allowed for our cats to house in his shed, we had many conversations about those cats! He will be missed!
