Gerlyn (Gerry) Ethel Niemann was born on March 20, 1929, at St. Gabriel's Hospital in Little Falls to the late William and Lena 'Zarns' Niemann. She grew up on the family farm and she boasted of being the best cow milker, proven by the fact that her Dad bought an automatic milk machine when she left home. Gerry spent time in the summer in Iowa with the Harry Niemann family where she met a local farmer, Harold, while working in Harry's tavern/diner, the Krispy Shop. At the end of the summer, Gerry returned to high school in Little Falls, but her heart remained in Iowa with Harold. So on January 19, 1947, Gerry and Harold were united in marriage at Zion Lutheran Church in Little Falls, MN. The couple continued dairy farming, first in Britt, IA, then Little Falls, then back to Forest City, IA, and finally spending 13 years in Albert Lea, MN, before settling permanently in Little Falls in 1969. During those farming years, Gerry worked side by side with Harold while raising 6 children, selling eggs and dressed chickens. Gerry still helped with the milking, but also all the cooking, baking, potato pancake making, gardening, canning, freezing, kraut making and sewing to include formalwear. After leaving the farm and returning to Little Falls, Gerry transitioned to a home daycare for some of her grandchildren and friends. Gerry was devoted to Harold and her family, especially the grandchildren.

Although the time during the day was consumed with work, her evening hours were filled with cribbage and card playing. The length of time playing was dependent on how many games Gerry was winning. When younger, Gerry was active in Zion, both in Albert Lea and Little Falls. She baked bread for bazaars and made homemade cinnamon rolls for Zion's county fair stand in Albert Lea. Gerry had the gift of hospitality always offering a cup of coffee to her guests.

Gerry is survived by her children, Shirley (Gary) Schaub of Fairmont, MN, Larry (Sherry) Nuehring of Newton, KS, Cathy Frederickson of Little Falls, MN, Judy (Jim) Larson of Aitkin, MN, Jim (Linda) Nuehring of Little Falls, MN; 16 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

Gerry was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Harold; son, Douglas Nuehring, Swanville, MN; granddaughter, Kimberly Larson Armstrong, Aitkin, MN; son-in-law, James Frederickson, Little Falls; brothers, Kenneth Niemann, Charles (Chuck) Nieman, and Albert (Bill) Nieman, all of Little Falls.

Gerry loved to visit, loved to share. She was a Grandma to many. We will miss her beautiful smile.
