

Gladys Martinson

August 7, 1926 - February 10, 2009

Gladys Martinson was born on August 7, 1926 in Alexandria, MN to the late Oscar and Katie (McColley) Covell. She was united in marriage to Roy Martinson on October 27, 1946 in Alexandria, MN. Following their marriage, Gladys and Roy farmed and made their home in the Randall area. In 1964, the family moved back to the Martinson family farm where Roy was born and raised. Gladys was a member of Randall Presbyterian Church, the VFW Auxiliary, and a past member of the Randall Seniors. She was also a volunteer at the Lutheran Home for many years. Gladys enjoyed flower gardening - both indoors and out, cooking, baking, church activities, tatting and other crafts, the draft horse clubs and activities she and Roy were involved, and her special little dog, Halle. She especially enjoyed spending time with friends and family. Gladys will be remembered for her wonderful flowers, delicious baking, and countless beautiful wedding, birthday and other special cakes that she decorated for others over the years. She was a true and faithful friend who showed great love for her husband and family.

Gladys is survived by son, Curt (Jan) Martinson of Randall, MN; daughters, Kathy Martinson of Sauk Centre, MN, and Pam (Jim) Weber of Sauk Centre, MN; brother, Lloyd Covell of Eugene, OR; sister, Doris Lystrom of Elbow Lake, MN, many nieces and nephews, 9 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren. Gladys is preceded in death by her husband, Roy Martinson (1998); son, James Martinson (1997); parents, Oscar and Katie Covell; sister, Elvira Covell; and brother, Ralph Covell.

Honorary pallbearers will be Nancy Thoene, Mary Schleif, Marie Poling, Helen Pfeffer, and Margie Ritters.

Active pallbearers will be her grandchildren: Troy Martinson, Kelly VanMannen, Lacey Martinson, Charles Bolz, Eric Bolz, Russell Weber, and Madolyn Weber.
