“ Kevin, errr, Buzzy,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad. I remember meeting him.

You and I were friends when we were at St. Mary's Catholic School in Grand Forks.

You used to invite me over to your home, the one your Dad built of bricks, on South 12th Street. In the basement of your home was a behemoth pool table with leather pockets.

Even though you and I could barely see over the top of the table, we'd grab some cues and shoot. Thanks to you and your Dad and his pool table, I think that was my introduction to pool which I still enjoy today.

Again, so sorry for your loss.
