

Helen O'Hotto

August 16, 1913 - June 10, 2009

Helen was born on August 16, 1913 in Swan River Township, Morrison County, MN, to the late Peter and Mary (Mucha) Kulig. She grew up in Swan River Township and attended District #8 country school. Helen helped her parents on the farm, and then worked in St. Paul, MN as a housekeeper for 3 years. Helen was united in marriage to Edward Jerome O'Hotto on August 27, 1937 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Royalton, MN. Together they farmed a mile east of Elmdale, MN. Upon selling the farm the couple owned and operated Big Birch Resort near Grey Eagle, MN for a few years. In 1955 they moved to Little Falls, MN. They operated a backhoe service with Helen working as the bookkeeper until retiring. In August, 2001, Helen became a resident of St. Otto's Care Center in Little Falls. She enjoyed sewing, baking, and quilting. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Helen O'Hotto is survived by her daughters, Joyce Johnson and Janice O'Hotto, both of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; 3 grandchildren, Tammi (Joe) O'Neil of Pierz, MN, Lynn Johnson of Gainesville, FL, and Kevin Johnson of GA and 2 great grandchildren, Sara Luberts and Kaitlin O'Neil; 2 great-great grandchildren, Breann and Jack Luberts.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Edward J. O'Hotto on August 21, 1998; daughters, Carol O'Hotto and June Torkelson.
